Head Coach Jason Leone

Jason Leone, CBA high school graduate and Hall of Famer, was hired to lead the Oswego State Men's Basketball Program in 2011-12. In 13 seasons with Oswego State, Leone has won 279 games and has reached the NCAA Tournament 8 times. Coach Leone has been named SUNYAC Coach of the Year 7 times and in 2019 he was a finalist for National Coach of the Year. Following the 2020 season he was named SUNYAC coach of the Decade and has coached 4 All-Americans. An enthusiastic teacher, Coach Leone has been a camp clinician throughout his time in the profession.

DEDICATION TO LOCAL YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

Participants will be offered programs designed to develop young players in all facets of the game. Basketball is a game of skill, tactics, and technique.

Coach Leone and his staff have designed a camp that will increase individual and team skills in an atmosphere that is challenging, competitive and fun.

"I am thrilled to be in Central New York and able to provide a great learning experience for its youth. I am confident that we will provide a positive and constructive environment, while understanding the fundamentals of basketball." –Coach Leone
