

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Indiana Wrestling Welcomes Brian Anderson as the New Regional Training Center Wrestling Executive Director

Bloomington, August 24, 2023 - Indiana Wrestling is thrilled to announce the appointment of Brian Anderson as the new Regional Training Center Wrestling Director. With an extraordinary track record and a wealth of experience in the wrestling world, Anderson is set to elevate the Hoosier RTC program to new heights.

Throughout his illustrious career as Head Coach at Wabash College, Anderson has amassed an impressive list of achievements and accolades. Under his leadership, the Wabash College wrestling team achieved an outstanding 5 Top 5 Finishes in Division III, boasting an exceptional roster of 8 National Champions, 5 Runner-ups, and 35 All-Americans. His remarkable coaching abilities were recognized in 2022 when he was honored as the NCAA Division III Coach of the Year.

Not only has Anderson excelled on the mats, but he has also demonstrated remarkable skills as a fundraiser, successfully establishing the "Learn from the Best Wrestling Camps" and fundraised to build a new wrestling facility at Wabash College to name a few examples. " His ability to cultivate support and resources will undoubtedly be an asset to Indiana Wrestling.

After 19 remarkable years at Wabash College, Anderson now joins the Hoosier program, bringing with him a legacy of excellence. In his final season at Wabash, he was named the 2022 NCAA Division III National Coach of the Year after leading the Little Giants to their 4th NCAA Team Trophy and an all-time high finish in school history as National Runner-up, coming within just one point of the National Title.

During his tenure at Wabash, Anderson consistently demonstrated his coaching prowess, earning the NCAA Central Regional Coach of the Year title an impressive 7 times. His tenure at Wabash was marked by 8 National Champions, 35 All-Americans, and 61 Scholar All-Americans. The program's consistent top 10 finishes at the National Tournament since the 2012-2013 season are a testament to his ability to develop a competitive and successful team.

Indiana Wrestling is excited to welcome Brian Anderson and looks forward to the impact his leadership will have on the development and success of wrestlers across the region. His passion for the sport, proven coaching abilities, and dedication to nurturing athletes' talents make him an ideal fit for the Regional Training Center.

Please join us in extending a warm welcome to Brian Anderson as the new Regional Training Center Wrestling Director. Together, we are eager to embark on a new era of excellence and growth in Indiana Wrestling.

For media inquiries and further information, please contact:

Angel Escobedo Head Wrestling Coach Indiana University

aaescobe@indiana.edu 812-855-6941